

LIZ LEA

Liz Lea is a performer, choreographer and producer based in Australia after 20 years in Europe, touring internationally. Her speciality is working with classical Indian dance and martial arts. She has been commissioned in India, UK, Australia, South Africa, Singapore and USA. Under her company, Liz Lea Dance, she has created and toured a dozen shows including '120 Birds', 'Magnificus Magnificus' inspired by the red tailed black cockatoo for Indigenous dancer Tammi Gissell and 'Kapture', inspired by the South African freedom fighter, Ahmed Kathrada.

Liz won a 2017 Australian Dance Award for her direction of Great Sport! for Canberra Dance Theatre which she directed for 7 years, establishing the GOLD over 55's dance company. Liz runs two Festivals - DANscienCE where dance and science meet and BOLD, celebrating the legacy of dance. She is currently working on two new projects; The Galaxy Project and a one woman show, RED.