

ARTIST PROFILE:

Kirk Page

Photo by Kate Holmes

Kirk is a proud Mulanjali man born on unceded country in Tulumur QLD with lineage connected to South East Queensland the Torres Strait Islands and Germany. He is passionate about creating change through art making.

Over the last 24 years, he has thrived and survived as a professional artist with a strong focus across genres and performance - physical theatre, musical theatre, dance, and acting for stage and screen.

Kirk has developed his instincts as a performer, director and teacher, working for theatre companies across the country and teaching at training institutions across the country, including, NAISDA, NIDA, NORPA and WAAPA.

He is currently working as a journalist for the Koori Mail newspaper.