

2022 Critical Path Research Residency Applications

Frequently Asked Questions

Who can apply?

All NSW connected artists with a choreographic practice. Artists with a choreographic focused or executed research idea, we love supporting ideas! Be open-minded, think about who you want to involve, apply as an individual, a partnership or a collective.

Will the residency include space support?

Selected artists will be provided space to deliver their activities. We can partner with different organisations to support your research. Please let us know in your proposal about your interest to engage with different spaces, communities and contexts. The research doesn't have to happen in Sydney (or at the Drill).

Does the residency include financial support?

Yes, this is a funded program. Selected research artists will talk through their ideas with the CP team and together we will draw up and manage a budget (across the year). Participating artists will be paid at industry adopted levels $1,200 per week equivalent, and pro rata.

What is the min. or max. duration of time for the proposed residency?

There is no specific limit on time for the residency. Please indicate in your proposal the time you need for your proposed research idea, as you see it at the start of your process. The time will be allocated according to your research needs, available appropriate space and the overall budget.

What is the number of collaborators for the residency?

You can work with as many collaborators as you want. Please include in your proposal details about your collaboration and bios. A large group exploration may limit the time available (as CP budget isn't huge or limitless) but don't get stuck in that yet as we can work together with you to find the best way to shape the research you need with your collaborators.

Can I apply in any format?

You can apply in the format that you think is the best way to describe your proposed research project. You can submit the main proposal in written, video, or audio format. Please fill in the contact and demographic info on the form provided. And don't forget your short biography. For other alternatives please contact producer@criticalpath.org.au, or if you want to talk this through.

When is the deadline for applications?

Applications close 10am, Tuesday 19 October 2021.
